

1) Classroom assessment should play an important role in supporting and planning school improvement efforts.

2) Classroom assessment does play an important role in supporting and planning school improvement efforts in my school.

3) Classroom assessment should be used to monitor student progress toward specific state standards and district and/or state benchmarks.

4) In my school, classroom assessment does monitor student progress toward specific state standards.